It also pleasing to share that Kraus Casuals had an outstanding year with high double-digit sales growth backed by an impressive 21%+ EBITDA margin, underscoring seamless integration post-acquisition. The acquisition has not only given us a meaningful entry into womens casualwear market but is already creating value, validating it to be financially accretive and strategically aligned with our growth journey.

Our focused, multi-pronged distribution strategy - distinct and clearly defined for each brand - was instrumental in driving this performance. With well-laid objectives and execution plans across channels, we saw strong, consistent growth across Brands, validating the strength of our laid out go-to-market approach. Our investments in brand building and distribution remain unwavering. By expanding our EBO network and reinforcing our position in Large Format Stores, we are driving stronger brand visibility and delivering consistent growth.

As we look ahead, our growth levers are firmly in place and delivering as planned. This gives us strong confidence in achieving our Vision 2028 commitments. We enter FY27 with robust momentum and expect to sustain the encouraging performance delivered in FY26, supported by a healthy margin profile and disciplined execution across brands and channels.”
